CORAM : A.M.KHANWILKAR, J.

DATED : MARCH 07, 2005

PC :-

1. None present for the Applicant.

2. The relief claimed in this application is for releasing the applicant on bail and for direction to the trial court for speedy trial. Today, in the companion cases, it has been brought to my notice that the State Government has appointed two special judges to deal with NDPS cases. In view of this development, it is expected that the case of the applicant will be considered by the appropriate court for expeditious trial. If no progress is made, the applicant may apply to the appropriate court for expeditious hearing and if such application is moved, the trial court may pass necessary orders as may be advised having regard to the fact that the applicant is in jail since February, 2000.

. Accordingly, dismissed for default with the above observation.

3. Ordered accordingly.
